COMPANY OVERVIEW

MADY Partners, LLC is a veteran-led, SAM.gov-registered small business certified as Service-Disabled Veteran-Owned (SDVOSB) and Minority-Owned. Based in Arlington, Virginia, MADY partners with general contractors and prime construction firms to help meet socio-economic subcontracting goals and unlock SDVOSB set-aside opportunities on federal, VA, and DoD facilities contracts.

CORE CAPABILITIES

- Joint Venture (JV) & teaming partnerships providing SDVOSB/minority set-aside eligibility on construction and facilities solicitations
- Program and project administrative support — scheduling, documentation control, subcontractor coordination
- Subcontracting plan compliance & reporting support (SF-294/295, socio-economic goal tracking)
- General site support services — site cleanup, logistics coordination, administrative field support
- Materials and equipment supply coordination, compliant with the SBA Nonmanufacturer Rule

FOUNDER — ANEES MERZI

U.S. Military Academy (West Point) graduate with a background directing cross-functional programs at the Department of Defense and within the Intelligence Community — managing acquisition processes from concept through award and maturing operational platforms from prototype to production. This program discipline and compliance rigor now anchors MADY's approach to construction and facilities support engagements. Key personnel hold an active Top Secret (TS) clearance.

WHY PARTNER WITH MADY

- Dual certification (SDVOSB + Minority-Owned) helps satisfy multiple subcontracting goals through one partner
- SBA-compliant JV structuring unlocks SDVOSB set-aside bids a prime could not pursue alone
- Virginia-based, positioned to support VA and DoD facilities work across the National Capital Region
